Purpose Statement

Franklin United Methodist Church is a fellowship of believers who have come together as a family of faith. Together we have established the following purpose, vision, and mission statement:

Purpose:

Willing and ready to follow and serve Jesus Christ.

Vision:

Franklin UMC shares God's love, Christ's sacrifice, and our faith for the salvation of the world.

Mission:

We believe in Jesus Christ whom we follow, serve, and share.

Key Verse:

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." John 3:16-17

POLLY'S PONDERING

I took a break from office work to sit out near the fountain on the benches on the church grounds. As I sat there was a beautiful wind blowing. I began to close my eyes and to breathe in deeply. As I felt the cool breeze rush across my face this scripture came to mind; "With that he breathed on them and said, receive the Holy Spirit" John 20:22.

I have a son-in-law who knows a lot about weather. He can watch the patterns created by the winds and know a bit about the movement it will make and how it will affect people living in different parts of the world. But the one thing he will not ever be able to explain is where the wind originated. Can you imagine the first-time humanity felt the cooling breeze of the wind? Can you imagine their awe and wonder and perhaps a bit of trepidation when the winds gained strength and came with power as a mighty rushing force?

God has always been connected to us in the wind. We are told in Genesis that God breathed into the lump of clay that He had fashioned into Adam and gave him life. The word in Hebrew for breath is ruach; it is also the word for Spirit.

In Judaism, the Holy Spirit (ruach hakodesh) refers to the divine force, quality, and influence of God over the universe or over God's creatures. I have learned a lot about God and about His Holy Spirit, but like my Son-in-law, my education and experience are limited. I can not tell you the origin of the Holy Spirit. But I know this, I have felt that breath of God moving in me. I have felt the influence of God when He breathed into me His Holy Spirit. I have felt God's leading, teaching, corrective power as the Holy Spirit abides with me. It has at times felt like a mighty force pushing me toward higher grounds of faith. I have felt God's comfort and companionship when life was uneasy and I felt isolated and alone, just as Jesus promised would happen when he sent the Holy Spirit to move among us. I have felt the Holy Spirit renew my energy as the weariness was blown away and I have felt new life spring from the death and destruction of dreams, selfish desires, sinful motivations, and damaging untruths I had unknowingly been holding onto for so long.

How do you need the Holy Spirit to move in you to deepen your relationship with God? Do you need a comforter? Do you need a teacher? Do you need to be more kind, patient, gentle? What do you need the breath of God to blow away to make this more possible? Could it be resentment, bitterness, selfishness, discontentment, apathy, stress, self-pity, self-righteousness, grief, despair, pride, etc.?

Let's join together in a prayer asking God to move among us with His breath of life, His ruach hakodesh in the name of Jesus.

Most powerful Holy Spirit, come down upon us and subdue us. From heaven, where the ordinary is made glorious, and glory seems but ordinary, bathe us with the brilliance of Your light like dew. God give us the courage to allow the Holy Spirit to move freely within us. Open our minds to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Open our ears to the teachings of the Holy Spirit. Open our hearts to the healing of the Holy Spirit, and open our lives to the power of the Holy Spirit. We ask this so that we might be in right relationship with You, God, and with Your people on earth. We ask this in the powerful and holy name of Your only begotten Son, Jesus. Amen

Youth

"As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you." John 15: 9-12

Loving others unconditionally isn't always easy, but it's always right!

Big shout out to the wonderful people that provide our meals each youth night! We appreciate you!

Thank you to the Campbells for a fun time in their pool!

FUMYF: Wed., Sept. 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23th, and 30th from 6:00 - 8:00 pm. We're meeting back in the Activity Building, so face masks are required.

Youth-led worship service:

Sunday, Oct. 18th. More information to come. If you know of a youth who doesn't regularly attend FUMYF, but would like to participate in the worship service, please let me know.

30-Hour Famine: Nov. 6-7

September Monthly Mission

We will again be collecting new & gently used kids jackets and hoodies to give to those in need this winter!

Please bring your donation by the Church office and we will distribute them later in the Fall.

October Monthly Mission

Operation Christmas Child, the Samaritan's Purse Shoebox project, will be the mission for October. Shoeboxes, and a list of suggested items to fill the boxes, will be available beginning September 20 at the back of the church. Some of the items suggested are small toys, hygiene items, and school supplies. These boxes are then sent to children affected by war, poverty, famine and disease, as well as to children living on Native American reservations in the U.S.

God's love is demonstrated in a tangible way through each shoebox gift.

Missions and Outreach Committee Chair, Julie Jarrell, was able to present a check, as well as diapers, clothing and lap quilts, to Elizabeth House Maternity Homes Volunteer Coordinator Jessica Moffett.

From Seth & Kailey Kissinger

FUMC,
I do not have the words to express the immense gratitude that we feel to be cared for and supported by this congregation. I know that this place will always be my home and my family, and to have your blessing as we pursue obedience means the world to us. May the LORD bless you in faithfulness and grace you well.
Love,
Seth & Kailey Kissinger

The FUMP CORNER

Since March, I have been asked so many questions about the opening of our awesome preschool. Many text messages, phone conversations, meetings, and emails were sent to Pastor Polly, the Executive Board, and Staff Members to make arrangements for opening, if possible. Believe it or not we came up with three different options of how preschool would look amid COVID-19. After much prayer and thought, our opening will look very similar to what we have done in the past, with the exception of extra safety precautions. If anyone would like more information about our Instructional-Health & Safety Protocol, please contact me for a copy.

I cannot think of a better song to start off the 2020-2021 school year than Jesus Loves the Little Children. We are prepared to teach our little ones about how much God loves each and everyone of us. Our theme for the school year will be the Fruits of the Spirit. Each month we will study a different fruit starting off with love.

Our staff is so blessed to have each of you in our lives. A huge shout-out of thanks for the Executive Board, the Kitchen Committee, Connections Committee and the congregation of FUMC. This summer the board met with me to plan for this school year and prepared, with the help of the Kitchen Committee, a delicious lunch for our staff. The Connections Committee presented the staff with a variety of supplies from office items to personal items to goodies at the luncheon on August 21. The FUMC August Monthly Mission focus was the preschool. The members of FUMC donated school supplies to each of our 44 children. What a blessing the start of this unusual school year has been. A simple thank you does not seem enough. Our staff was in awe of your love and support.

In Christ,
Sherry Buchanan,
Director FUMP

FUMC Amazon Wish List

Thank You Anne & Frank Perry for your gifts from the Amazon Wish List!!

Psalm 66:4

"All the earth bows down to you, they sing praise to you, they sing the praises of your name."

Discovering good worship in this new reality means we will have to set aside the pursuit of our previous definition of worship.

Maybe worship included moments of entertainment, pleasure, fellowship or even a certain routine in order to pursue God. Perhaps now we should ask him to reorder our priorities and passions. This is a new and different process than we have been used to and it will require us all to be stimulated by God's grace and imagination. What we once considered good worship may no longer be feasible as our congregation gathers in a socially distanced manner or as we worship from home. Just because it isn't the same doesn't mean it can no longer be good.

The Worship Committee continues to pray for our congregation—not only for good health, but also that each member is finding their own way to enjoy whatever new form of worship they may have found.

Thank you again to Pastor Polly for her diligence in her work to keep us connected as a congregation.

We are always in need of volunteers for Special Music if anyone is interested in sharing a special talent with us.

As always, if you have any ideas or suggestions, or would like to participate or volunteer to help the Worship Committee with these special opportunities of worship, please contact the church office and we will be happy to have your input and participation.

New Middle School Study

Starting Sunday, September 13th at 9:00am, the Encounter Class (grades 5th thru 8th) will begin a new study. We will dive into Ephesians, where the apostle Paul reveals the secret to being strong in the Lord. This study will help teens put on every piece of God's armor, including the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation, and the footreadiness that comes with knowing the gospel of peace. We will learn to use the sword of the Spirit, God's Word...prayerfully equipping these young Christians to stand strong in their faith and march forward in confidence! God Weeps

Words by Shirley Erena Murray

God weeps at love withheld,
at strength misused,
at children's innocence abused,
and till we change the way we love,
God weeps.

God bleeds at anger's fist,
at trust betrayed,
at women battered and afraid,
and till we change the way we win,
God bleeds.

God cries at hungry mouths,
at running sores,
at creatures dying without cause,
and till we change the way we care,
God cries.

God waits for stones to melt,
for peace to seed,
for hearts to hold each other's need,
and till we understand the Christ,
God waits.
