Purpose Statement

Franklin United Methodist Church is a fellowship of believers who have come together as a family of faith. Together we have established the following purpose, vision, and mission statement:

Purpose:

Willing and ready to follow and serve Jesus Christ.

Vision:

Franklin UMC shares God's love, Christ's sacrifice, and our faith for the salvation of the world.

Mission:

We believe in Jesus Christ whom we follow, serve, and share.

Key Verse:

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." John 3:16-17

POLLY'S PONDERING

"Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them."

Ephesians 4:29

Words have always held power for me. Early on I learned how words can hurt and harm. Sometimes it was because the words were sweet but the actions spoke hurt into my life; like the elderly man next door who liked to play games with children. Sometimes the words came from friends, who no longer chose to be so. Or the sharp words uttered by my music teacher that said I had no musical abilities when my heart longed to sing. Sometimes they were words spoken in a father's drunken rage calling my mother names I still can not bring myself to say.

But words can speak healing as well. Like the words spoken by the woman whose name I no longer remember but whose expression of kindness eased the anxiety caused by the alcohol fueled monologue spewed out by the dark shadow in the door way of my bedroom earlier that evening.

Sometimes healing words can be spoken by the very ones who have hurt you before. Like the words of my father who said "leave her alone when she finds some one, he will be the best"; and 40 years later he still is. Then there was the power of the words "I DO" that began to erase all the destructive work of the words that told me I would never be good enough.

Sometimes the power of words is contained in black ink on parchment; sometimes loose leaf like love letters in the mail or messages on cards. Sometimes they are on paper bound together with purpose and intention. Like the words of the scripture:

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

"You have kept count of my tossings; put my tears in Your bottle. Are they not in Your record? Then my enemies will retreat in the day when I call. This I know, that God is for me." Psalms 56:8-9

"I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live." John 14:18-19

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account, Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you." Matthew 5:10-12

Sometimes the hurtful words come out of my mouth. Sometimes they are intended to hurt, more often they are thoughtlessly uttered without harmful intent. Regardless, their destructive damage has been unleashed.

So, the words of Jesus breathlessly spoken, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do" speak hope that I am included in his forgiveness too. And, of course, I am so grateful that when I was young, I was taught "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him." John 3:16-17

Today, I share these words first spoken by Blaise Pascal:

"Knowing God without knowing our own wretchedness makes for pride. Knowing our own wretchedness without knowing God makes for despair. Knowing Jesus Christ strikes the balance because he shows us both God and our own wretchedness. Jesus is a God whom we can approach without pride and before whom we can humble ourselves without despair."

Join me in speaking aloud these prayerful words: I thank You Father God for speaking words into my life; words of hope, healing, and salvation. And I also thank You Almighty God for speaking corrective words, convicting words, and teaching words into my life. Thank You for allowing me to be humbled without despair. And thank You for the Word spoken in syllabus of flesh and bone, Jesus Your only begotten Son, in whose name I pray. Amen

Pastor Polly

Youth

""But he answered me, 'My grace is always more than enough for you, and my power finds its full expression through your weakness.' So I will celebrate my weaknesses, for when I'm weak, I sense more deeply the mighty power of Christ living in me. So I'm not defeated by my weakness, but delighted! For when I feel my weakness and endure mistreatment—when I'm surrounded with troubles on every side and face persecution because of my love for Christ—I am made yet stronger. For my weakness becomes a portal to God's power." (2 Corinthians 12:9-10 TPT).

What a comforting truth it is that our weaknesses don't determine what we can accomplish for God's Kingdom! When we acknowledge our weaknesses, instead of relying on ourselves, Christ's power works through us to produce His will. Thanks be to God!

Big shout out to the wonderful people that provide our meals each youth night! We appreciate you!

There will be a Shoebox Stuffing Party on Wednesday, October 28 during Youth Group. Some of the items needed are hair brushes and combs, toothbrushes, bar soap, socks, flip-flops, underwear, hats, scarves, mittens, crayons, pencils, small toys~just about anything that you would buy your own child or grandchild is welcome. These boxes will be distributed throughout the world, as well as to children living on Native American reservations in the United States.

God's love is demonstrated in a tangible way through each shoebox gift.

Music Note:

*Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.
Psalm 95:1*

The FUMP CORNER

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." Galatians 5:22-23 (NIV).

The believer's life should evidence these nine virtues. What a contrast to this difficult time we are living. Our theme for the entire school year is the Fruit of the Spirit. Each month we will take a different virtue to teach our little ones.

During the month of October, we will focus on kindness. Our scripture reference tells the story about a man who was traveling and came upon robbers, who stripped him and beat him, leaving him half dead. "A Samaritan came along and had compassion for the man." The parable of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10:33 is told by Jesus in response to a question about who our neighbor is. It demonstrates how we should love and show kindness to others, especially those who need our help the most. The teachers will read stories and demonstrate how to be kind to each other.

October is Fire Prevention month and Bullying Prevention month. The Fire Department will visit the preschool and share about Fire Safety. I wish everyone could see the children when they get to sit on the fire truck-PRICELESS!

Amy Huggins for purchasing face shields for the FUMP Staff, and Sandra Hoegemeyer for the purchase of a wall mounted changing table for the nursery.

In Christ,
Sherry Buchanan,
Director FUMP

“I need Thee, O I need Thee; Every hour I need Thee; O bless me now, my Savior, I come to Thee”

These simple lyrics express what can be our most profound longing, especially in times of challenge or sorrow. These words remind us of Who is faithful whenever we might feel the need to be carried or lifted up as life becomes tough and hard to bear.

“Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me. (Psalm 50:15)

Longing for comfort and reassurance draws us to prayer, our most powerful and personal form of worship. It is a priceless gift. Prayer is an opportunity to make our walk with God all the more personal as we engage in one-on-one conversation with God. Constant prayer leads to breakthroughs in our understanding and in our ability to find peace during trying times.

“Come to me all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28)

When we really come to Christ through prayer and personal worship, we find in him all the rest from our burdens, comfort from our worries and reassurance in our cares. Worship Christ through prayer and thanksgiving and know that He is your safe place. He will gladly accept all that you lay before him.

We look forward to the day when we can all come together once again.

As always, if you have any ideas or suggestions, or would like to participate or volunteer to help the Worship Committee with these special opportunities of worship, please contact the church office and we will be happy to have your input and participation.

is celebrated
October 4 by all
United Methodist Churches.

On the first Sunday in October, United Methodist congregations join many Christian churches across the globe in celebrating World Communion Sunday which began in 1933. "The term Holy Communion invites us to focus... on the holiness of our communion with God and one another," states This Holy Mystery, The United Methodist Church's official statement. Today, The United Methodist Church celebrates World Communion Sunday with congregations all over the globe. Followers of Jesus Christ in large churches and small, on farms and in cities, in ornate buildings and under tents, gather to receive the bread and cup of Holy Communion.
