Invitational Hymn

“Power in the Blood”

Now let us remind ourselves of what we believe as we head out into the world.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic* church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen. (*universal)

Purpose: Willing and ready to follow and serve Jesus Christ.

Vision: Franklin UMC shares God’s love, Christ’s sacrifice, and our faith for the salvation of the world.

Mission: We believe in Jesus Christ whom we follow, serve and share.

Key Verse: “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved.” - John 3:16&17

Prayer and Scripture

Mary Kamas
John 21:1-19

Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Galilee. It happened this way: Simon Peter, Thomas (also known as Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. “I’m going out to fish,” Simon Peter told them, and they said, “We’ll go with you.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?” “No,” they answered. He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.” When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish. Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, “It is the Lord,” he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards. When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you have just caught.” So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” “Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.” Again Jesus said, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” He answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.” The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?” He said, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my sheep. Very truly I tell you, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me!”

“An Ordinary Day Becomes Extraordinary”

Pastoral Prayer & The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power
And the glory for ever. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to You, Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. You formed us in Your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, Your love remained steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, brought us to a land flowing with milk and honey, and set before us the way of life.

And so, with Your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are You, and blessed is Your Son Jesus Christ. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection You gave birth to Your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit. By Your great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Your Son from the dead and to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading. Once we were no people, but now we are Your people, declaring Your wonderful deeds in Christ, who called us out of darkness into his marvelous light. When the Lord Jesus ascended, he promised to be with us always, in the power of Your Word and Holy Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to You, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to You, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

On the day You raised him from the dead he was recognized by his disciples in the breaking of the bread, and in the power of Your Holy Spirit Your Church has continued in the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup.

And so, in remembrance of these Your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out Your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By Your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through Your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in Your holy Church, all honor and glory is Yours, almighty Father, now and forever.
Amen.

Receiving of the Bread and Cup

Prayer After Receiving
Eternal God, we give You thanks for this holy mystery in which You have given yourself to us.
Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of Your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Preschool Recognition

Preschool Board Chair:
Dear friends, the ministry and mission to children here at Franklin UMC was a result of a God size vision given to Sharon Fisher. I am sure that she had no idea what You would do with that vision and with her willingness to respond to Your calling for her to serve in this way. We are thankful for her willing service.

Pastor to FUMP Founder
On behalf of this family of faith and all those whose lives have been touched by the ministry to and through children, now known as FUMP, we offer to you a word of thanksgiving and blessing. Let us pray, Thank you Lord for giving Sharon the vision and the willing spirit to bring to life this ministry to children. It has been a loving response to Your call to let the children come to you. Pour out Your blessing upon Sharon that she might continue to serve You all the days of her life.
Amen

Preschool Board Chair:
These Board Members, administrators, teachers, and aides standing before you are only a couple of weeks away from completing another school year here at FUMP. We are grateful for the way they continue to bring the vision to life in new ways.

Pastor to FUMP Staff
On behalf of this family of faith, the Franklin Community, and the FUMP families, let me offer this word of thanks.

Gracious God, thank You not only for calling these women into Your service, but specifically for calling them into service to children and their families through FUMP. Their dedication, talent, and willing spirits have blessed the program with compassion, integrity, and excellence. Continue to pour out Your blessing upon them in the days to come that they might know Your presence in their lives in new and powerful ways. Amen

Preschool Board Chair:
Today the church’s ministry and mission to preschoolers continues to not only thrive, but also to strive to improve and build upon the strengths of those who have served in the past. We give thanks to God for this incredible ministry among us and offer a word of gratitude for those who have given their time and energy to this mission of our church. At this time, I ask for all those among us who have participated in this ministry and mission of the church at any point since its conception, either through service on the Board, administration, teaching or in roles of aide to the teachers and administrators, to those who have sent their children, or those who have themselves been taught in this program to stand and receive this word of blessing.

Pastor to all those who have impacted or been impacted by this ministry.
Lord thank You for blessing us with able and willing individuals who have heard Your command to teach Your Word to the children. We are grateful for those who have followed Your direction to partner with this ministry in fulfilling the command to train up a child in the way they should go. And we are blessed by all those who have allowed us the privilege of sharing in a portion of their faith journey. Pour out Your Holy Spirit upon them that their lives might be full and their faith journey rich with Your mercy and grace. Amen
