alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and to ask God for help. But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives. Give the people these instructions, so that no one may be open to blame. Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

Prayer and Scripture

Mila Peterson
Proverbs 23:22-25

Listen to your father, who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old. Buy the truth and do not sell it—wisdom, instruction and insight as well. The father of a righteous child has great joy; a man who fathers a wise son rejoices in him. May your father and mother rejoice; may she who gave you birth be joyful!

1 Timothy 5:1-8

Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as brothers, older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity. Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need. But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God. The widow who is really in need and left all

March Mission of the Month and Lenten Mission Franklin Food Pantry

This year, for Lent, the Mission Committee is providing you the opportunity to help fill the shelves at the Franklin Food Pantry. As we continue journeying this Lenten season we are continuing the mission to fill those shelves with food items. There are still some boxes available should you need one and there are plenty of the calendars with the suggestions of the items needed by the pantry. Fill the box, fill the shelves and fill the stomachs of your neighbors. If you have any questions please contact the church office or contact Julie Jarrell at 979-255-2966.

Purpose: Willing and ready to follow and serve Jesus Christ.

Vision: Franklin Methodist Church shares God's love, Christ's sacrifice, and our faith for the salvation of the world.

Mission: We believe in Jesus Christ whom we follow, serve and share.

Key Verse: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved." - John 3:16-17
